

Social Studies Review

Across

2. Political protest occurred on December 16, 1773, when angry Colonist opposed British "taxation without Representation."

3. The arrangement of the Iroquois (Haudenosaunee) villages were built with fences around them for this reason.

5. Native Americans from the Eastern Woodlands used wood to build homes, tools, and canoes.

9. This British Law was enacted after the in the Colonies after French and Indian War to limit Colonists freedom to move westward, and to avoid conflicts with Native Americans

10. This battle convinced the French to support the Americans in the Revolutionary War.

12. Colonists who protested British taxation and fought for Independence.

13. This group of 800-2000 militia known as "Dunmore's Ethiopian Regiment" fled their plantations and joined the British.

14. This document established the United State of America, "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

Down

1. This British law required colonists to house British soldiers in barracks.

4. Three regions of the 13 Colonies: New England Colonies; Mid-Atlantic States; and Southern Colonies differed for this reason.

6. Early Colonists built their settlements near these types of geographic areas because it was easier for farmer to transport products.

7. Colonists who supported the British troops and sided with the King?

8. Benjamin Franklin published political cartoon encouraging colonies to unite in joint colonial council for defense or they cannot survive.

11. This Mohawk Indian chief or the leader of the Onondaga tribe is attributed with having joined together five tribes to form the League of Five Nations.

Word Bank

Black Loyalists

Quartering Act

Declaration of Independence

Proclamation of 1763

Battle of Saratoga

Join or Die

Patriots

Adaptation to Environment?

Bodies of Water

Hiawatha

Loyalists

Protection from Enemies?

Boston Tea Party

Geography and Climate