

Social Studies terms

Across

- 1. An agreement in which people agree to give up some rights and power in exchange for protection
- 3. A government in which a small group of people has all the power. Greek for "rule by a few"
- 5. One person has absolute control over citizens' lives
- 6. A king or queen rules the country
- 8. Philosopher and political scientist born in 1632 who believed that governments should protect people's natural rights
- 13. A group of people that are members or citizens of a state
- 15. Military officers who rule a country after taking it over by force
- 20. Book by Hobbes that explains how he thought governments should work
- 22. Ruler with total authority over the people
- 23. A government in which one person has all the power
- 25. The area in which a state's rule applies

- 26. Natural right where people want to own things that help them survive, like land, food, and tools
  - 27. A body of people living in a defined space with the power and organization to make and enforce laws
  - 29. protecting the rights of small unpopular groups regardless of what the majority believes
  - 30. The organization in a state that controls the state's actions and policies
  - 31. Citizens give their permission to be governed (voting)
- Down
- 2. The relationships a state will have with other states
  - 4. A form of democracy where citizens elect leaders to represent their rights and interests in government
  - 7. Dividing power among several different branches of government
  - 9. Scholar and philosopher born in 1588 who discussed the idea of a Social Contract, and believed in the state of nature

- 10. A form of democracy where citizens are directly involved in governing the country
- 11. The ability to rule absolutely within a territory
- 12. The rulebook for a country's government
- 14. A government where nobody is in control (no countries have this as their government)
- 16. A government in which citizens hold power
- 17. State where everyone has a right to everything, no rules, no one in charge
- 18. Natural right where people want to be as free as possible to make their own decisions
- 19. A government that recognizes God or a divine being as the ultimate authority
- 21. Locke's theory that says all humans are born with a mind like a blank slate or page
- 24. Laws are fair, enforced, and no one is above the law
- 28. Natural right where people want to live and will fight to survive