

Social Thinking and Social Influence

Across

- 7. Group that professes great devotion to some person and follows that person almost without question.
- 8. Groups with which a person mainly identifies
- 9. The tendency for people to change their behavior just because of the presence of other people.
- 10. The systematic study of norms concerning the use of personal space.

Down

- 1. Comparing your own actions, feeling, opinions, or abilities to those of others.

- 2. Consists of the network of roles, communication pathways, and power in a group.
- 3. The scientific study of how individuals behave, think, and feel in social situations.
- 4. The conformity to the demands of an authority.
- 5. The bending to the requests of a person who has little or no authority or other form of social power.
- 6. A mixture of belief and emotion that predisposes a person to respond to other people, objects, or groups in a position or negative way.