

Social influence crossword

Across

3. What's the process called where the minority opinion becomes dominant and people can't remember where the opinion originated from?

6. type of social influence where a person follows an order from another person, usually an authority figure

9. when the minority begin to persuade the majority round to their way of thinking- [blank] effect

10. an ethical issue of Milgram's shock study

11. the theory that states people will obey an authority when they believe they will take responsibility for their actions

12. researcher who conducted the Stanford Prison Experiment

Down

1. the type of locus of control a person has if they believe they have personal control over their behaviour

2. the type of influence when a person conforms to fit in because they don't want to appear foolish

4. type of conformity when someone conforms to the demands of a given role in society

5. who conducted the blue slide experiment where participants had to report the colour shown on the slide?

7. type of conformity where someone agrees in public but privately disagrees

8. the experimental method used in Milgram's shock study