

Society & Culture

Across

2. Relating to, measuring, or measured by the quality of something rather than its quantity

9. The ability or capacity to do something or act in a particular way

11. Relating to, measuring, or measured by the quantity of something rather than its quality

12. Adoption of the characteristics of apparently more advanced societies by other societies that are apparently less advanced.

14. Individuals, every day actions

15. How society develops from small and simple to complex post-industrial society's

16. The ways in which social structures meet social needs

17. A social process where the values, customs and practices of Western industrial capitalism are adopted to form the basis of cultural change

18. Social change and development are influenced from conflict resulting in inequalities and differences in power at any given time

Down

1. Often takes a few generations to see the effects of social change and alterations on population composition, characteristics and structure, e.g. aging population

3. The power or right to give orders, make decisions, and enforce obedience

4. The unbroken and consistent existence or operation of something over time

5. Relationships of individuals within their society

6. Describes incremental changes that accumulate over long periods of time to alter society on a larger scale

7. Make or become different.

8. Process of interacting with people and businesses internationally, this becomes achievable through technology

10. The wider social structure e.g. the media, law, and government

13. Individuals interactions within groups e.g. school, family, friends