

Sociology Review

Across

2. An economic system under which the means of production and distribution are collectively owned.

8. The practice of a couple living together in a sexual relationship without marrying.

10. Norms deemed highly necessary to the welfare of a society

12. The name of a theory of aging that suggests that society and the aging individual mutually sever many of their relationships

14. a society where men dominate in family decision making

15. a penalty or reward for conduct concerning a culture norm

16. Refers to a rigid adherence to core religious doctrine.

Down

1. a type of norm that has been written down and precisely recorded

3. A type of norm that is understood rather than being recorded

4. The type of economy that consists of transferring or exchanging goods and services without government knowledge. Exp - the black market

5. the tendency to assume that one's own culture is dominant over another's

6. The type of polygamy in which a woman has more than one husband

7. A type of authority that people perceive to be superior based on qualities that set an individual apart from other members of society

9. A form of government where a small dictatorial group rules, often takes the form of military rule.

11. A sense of who we are

13. the type of sociology practice that has the intent of yielding practical applications for human behavior or organizations