

Sociology Vocab

Across

5. Clothes a specific culture wears, books they read, houses they live in, and cars they drive.
 6. A cultural group that is within a larger culture
 8. The way we establish and enforce principles.
 9. Something that is considered normal or a set of standards of behaviors maintained by a society.
 15. Sitting back folding your arms, smiling when you find out good news, high fiving a teammate after a big win are all examples of what?
 18. The customs, arts, language, and achievements of people or other social groups.
 19. The most common term used to refer to material culture. Examples: computer, cell phone, cars.
 20. How biology affects human social behaviors.

21. A different language or slang used in a group.
 22. The action or process of revealing something.
 23. Rules that are unwritten and unspoken.
 24. A way of life that is opposed to the social norm.

Down

1. Rules that are written down and have punishments if violated.
 2. The automobile, television and light bulb are all examples of this.
 3. The methods in which humans communicate.
 4. School Calendars - Most schools still have a 9-month school year which was originally designed to let kids be home working in the fields during the summer
 7. When you go to Africa and they serve you rat on a stick.

10. Include both positive and negative responses to a behavior.

11. Ideas, values, knowledge, practices, behaviors, materials, and symbols all spread from one society to another.

12. Principles that shape what we see as appropriate and inappropriate actions

13. The community of people that live in a specific region or country. They share customs, organizations, and laws.

14. Judging another culture based on the values in your own culture.

16. The traditional way of life in a specific community.

17. The introduction of something new.

25. A system of rules enforced by the state that citizens must follow.

Word Bank

Nonverbal Communication
 Laws
 informal norm
 Sanction
 Language
 Material Culture
 subculture

Discovery
 ethnocentrism diffusion
 Invention
 Argot
 Innovation

Values
 Folkways
 Norm
 Cultural Shock
 Normative Culture
 Cultural Lag

Counterculture
 Society
 Culture
 Formal Norm
 Sociobiology
 Technology