

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sociology chapter 3

- |  |                        |
|--|------------------------|
| 1. rules that define behaviors   | A. encounter           |
| 2. norms that are formally defined and enforced by officials.                              | B. norms               |
| 3. norm so strong that its violation demands punishment by the group.                      | C. informal sanctions  |
| 4. norms that lack moral significance  | D. folkways            |
| 5. norms that have moral dimensions and that should be followed by members of the society. | E. sanctions           |
| 6. the breaking of a rule or law   | F. ideal culture       |
| 7. broad ideas about what is good or desirable shared by people in a society.              | G. taboo               |
| 8. sanctions imposed by persons given special authority                                    | H. laws                |
| 9. rewards and punishments used to encourage people to follow norms.                       | I. violation           |
| 10. rewards or punishments that can be applied by most members of                          | J. mores               |
| 11. the concrete, tangible objects of a culture  | K. contrast            |
| 12. to come across or meet   | L. values              |
| 13. dissimilar attributes among things with common natures                                 | M. material culture    |
| 14. ideas, knowledge, and beliefs that influence people's behavior                         | N. nonmaterial culture |
| 15. the concrete, tangible objects of a culture  | O. formal sanctions    |
| 16. actual behavior patterns of members of a group   | P. material culture    |
| 17. cultural guidelines that group members claim to accept                                 | Q. real culture        |