

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sociopolitical Dimensions of Participation: Occupational Justice

Across

- 2. the equitable distribution of resources and goods in society
- 3. people's right to engage in meaningful occupations
- 6. a characteristic of social systems
- 7. unjust differences and disparities in health interventions and outcomes between groups of people

- 9. results from complex interactions among social, economic, etc.. factors and are often beyond the individual's control
- 10. occurs when a person has an insufficient repertoire of daily occupations
- 11. Occupations that do not enrich the worker and is meaningless and boring
- 12. segregation of groups of people through restriction or denial of access

Down

- 1. Inability of individuals to exert everyday choices
- 4. individuals treating each other in a fair and equitable manner
- 5. a hierarchal organization that differentially distributes power, privilege and access to resources
- 8. occurs when people spend too much time in paid labor and neglect other aspects of their lives

Word Bank

Distributive Justice

Occupational Apartheid

Occupational Marginalization

Occupational Imbalance

Social Justice

Occupational Deprivation

Health Inequity

Imbalance

Interactional Justice

Occupational Alienation

Social Stratification

Occupational Justice