

Some Survey Double-Speak

Across

3. Starry-eyed bear
 6. Well, that's obviously wrong!
 7. Crooked Bill's upstanding brother
 8. Where there's a will, there's a way; when there's not, then there's this
 10. Sixty-five year old Mr World
 12. Mathematical vertical alignment curve
 15. Reservoir volume units
 17. This bar brings things to a halt
 20. No, it's not turning down an invitation
 21. Celestial vertices
 24. Following the deepest path
 30. Examples include: T-60D, T-2, DKM-2
 31. It's the shortest distance on an ellipsoid
 33. Acronym of the first agency created to regulate and sell PLS land
 34. Ask me wye I use this old level instead of an automatic one.
 36. More than enough

37. Unreal!

39. Ten chains squared
 40. Go back to the tavern again
 43. Falling eyesight
 45. You can get your way if you walk long enough
 47. Yes, dear
 48. Famous for his cone
 49. At face value
 50. It's not most circles

Down

1. Stereoplotter image plate
 2. GPS on the move
 4. Leave the tavern
 5. Sixty minutes of lousy pick-up lines
 9. Level collimation
 11. Going off on one
 13. Relating to lake abutting property
 14. Wander
 16. A way to rise above it all

18. Fractional quarter-quarter section creation

19. Early electronic distance measuring instrument
 22. Point directly below as well as a consumer advocate and perennial presidential candidate
 23. Leftovers
 25. Dirty ones of these aren't done cheap
 26. What she told me was...
 27. Type of instrument or flower
 28. Alidade arc
 29. Red queen
 32. What you see when the sea slowly recedes
 35. How to set a pipe and what your face is afterwards
 38. I'm just saying
 41. Bottom of the bag
 42. First US geographer
 44. A really long fish - perch
 46. He hid PLS records while the British burned Washington DC