

Spanish Classroom Vocab

Across

6. You eat here when at school. Sounds like Cafe and you can eat at a cafe
10. The word reminds me of diction and you can find different types of diction in the dictionary.
12. The word looks and sounds a lot like History
13. The word looks like face and it is easy for me to remember faces.
14. The word reminds me of piece, and can piece together your information on a white board
15. You think of a biography and you get biographies from the library

17. This word reminds me of different and sometimes when things are different they are confusing

18. The beginning of the word reminds me of the end of the word science

Down

1. The word reminds me of mathematics which can be math for short
2. This word makes me think of a calculator and in calculus you use a calculator
3. You can erase a board with an eraser

4. The word reminds me of Spain and I know Spanish originated in Spain

5. A professor could be someone who teaches you, (female)

7. This word looks like computer

8. The word reminds me of sit and you sit at a desk

9. The word Hora in Spanish means hour and hours are on the schedule

11. Reminds me of terrible and homework can sometimes be terrible

16. The word sounds like English