

"Spect" from Latin, means "to see"

Across

- 6. To look back on events in the past
- 8. Someone who looks very for clues
- 9. You use these to see out of
- 10. A point of view

Down

- 1. someone who goes to a football match to watch
- 2. To see with suspicion
- 3. An apparatus for photographing
- 4. To look very closely
- 5. To watch a game
- 7. To see someone with admiration

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|---------------|--------------|-------------|----------|
| spectator | inspector | perspective | Spectate |
| retrospective | inspect | spectacles | suspect |
| respect | Spectrograph | | |