

Name: _____

Date: _____

Speech Terms

Across

2. allows listener to acquire information, solve problems and persuade or dissuade the speaker

4. the closing of the speech; should be strong and concise

8. to encourage the audience to take action

9. used to justify, prove or enhance the main points of the speech

11. a function of the ears; an intake of information

12. being able to accurately recall and paraphrase something you have heard

13. concentrating on the speaker and what he/she says

Down

1. allows listener to relax and enjoy the conversation; sometimes called passive listening

3. attaching a meaning to the speaker's message

5. the major part of the speech

6. occurs at the end of the speech to quickly recap all of the information presented and reinforce any other valuable points

7. to share information with the audience

10. the theft or misrepresentation of intellectual property (someone's ideas, beliefs or theories); the substantial unattributed copying of another's work