

-Spelling Bee Crossword-

Across

2. the development of a seed into a plant

3. a meat-eating giant that ran on its hind legs- probably the most well-known dinosaur

5. a type of animal with a hard shell instead of a skeleton, such as a crab, usually living in water

8. the science dealing with the classification of types of plants and animals

13. a burrowing mammal whose body is covered in strong plates

17. a large mammal with thick skin and hoofs, such as the elephant, hippopotamus and rhinoceros

18. to take the leaves or branches of a tree or plant

19. an organ used by a spider, insect larva, etc., to spin a silky thread for its web or cocoon

21. a sea animal with a rounded nose, usually blackish on top and paler beneath

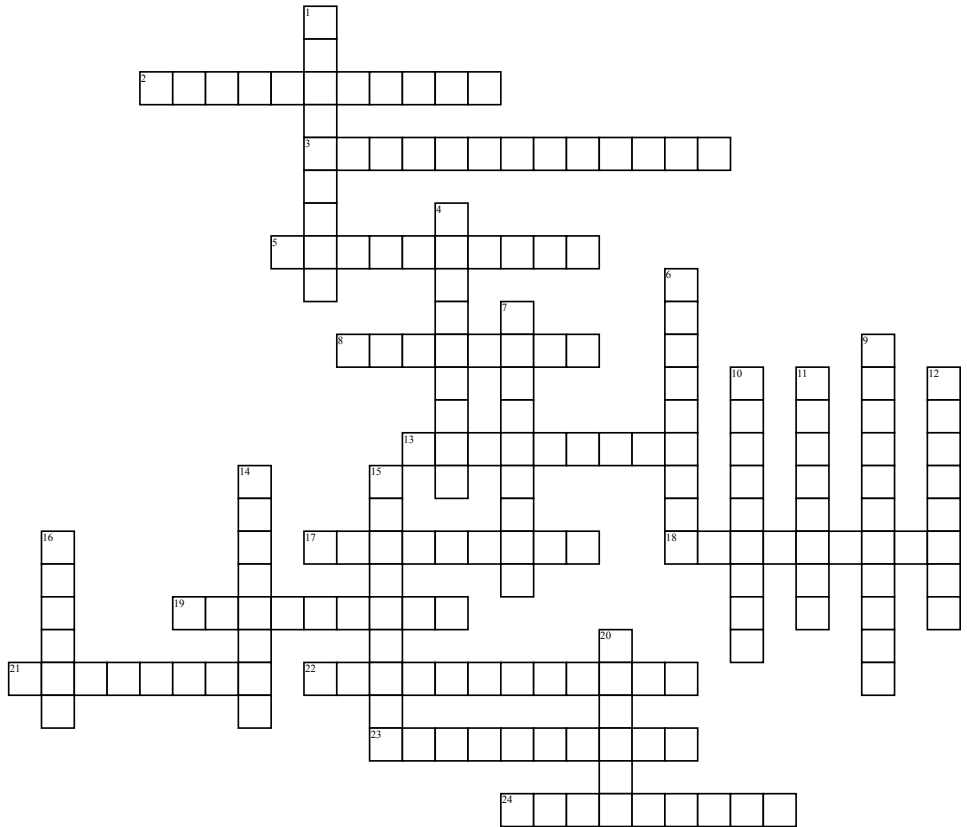

22. a place where particular animals or plants whose numbers are decreasing due to any cause are bred to release into the wild

23. able to live, move or operate both on land and in water

24. relating to a plant with a life cycle of more than two years

Down

1. a place of safety for animals, such as a shelter or a legally protected forest

4. a flightless Australasian bird that has the ability to kill a human if it wants to

6. an animal that has no internal spine, and has a body of joined segments

7. a small grey Australian parrot with a yellow crest on its head

9. a large, herbivorous dinosaur, with a heavy bony armour

10. a dangerous plant native to North America and East Asia- it is even considered unhealthy to take a sniff of it!

11. any shrub or small evergreen tree having solitary white, pink, or red flowers

12. a large fish found in the northern areas of the world

14. a type of spiny grass native to Australia

15. a tall tree with pale purple flowers

16. a spotted, leopard like cat from North and South America- Leonardo Da Vinci had one as a pet

20. a small wolf native to Western side of North America