

Spelling Test (AR)

Across

8. A formal statement.
 9. People who volunteered to serve in the American militia and were ready to fight at a moment's notice.
 11. A small booklet that includes information or ideas about a single topic.
 13. A unit in the army.
 14. To give someone something valuable.
 15. A narrow ditch dug into the ground

Down

1. The act of overthrowing a government with the hopes of starting a new and different one.
 2. Breaking the rules on purpose.
 3. To establish or start something
 4. A soldier from one country paid to fight for another country.
 5. A person living in the colonies who did not support the American cause and remained loyal to Great Britain.

6. A final decision usually meant to solve a problem or create a course of action.
 7. A formal written request for change signed by several people.
 10. A large amount of something being stored for future use.
 12. An official course of action.