

Spelling Week 7

Across

2. To change the relative position, order, or sequence of; cause to change places; interchange:
4. A change in something's form, appearance or nature
8. Allowing light to pass through
11. To communicate, as information or news.
12. Lying or extending across or in a cross direction; cross.
13. The act of buying or selling
15. To carry, move, or convey from one place to another.

16. The act or fact of passing across or through; passage from one place to another.
17. Lasting only a short time; brief; short-lived; temporary.
18. Something that is able to be transferred or made over to the possession of another person.

Down

1. To turn from one language into another or from a foreign language into one's own:
3. A person or thing that transmits.
5. To convey or remove from one place, person, etc., to another:

6. The act of transferring or passing from one to another
7. The rendering of something into another language or into one's own from another language.
9. Any major transverse part of the body of a church, usually crossing the nave, at right angles, at the entrance to the choir.
10. To remove something from one place and put it in another.
14. To rise above or go beyond; overpass; exceed