

Spelling week 4

Across

1. Someone who is carefully weighed or considered

3. a person who makes laws

11. When a fluid such as blood turns into a solid

13. movement from one part of something to another.

14. bring oneself into favour with someone by trying to please them.

15. the process or fact of irradiating or being irradiated

Down

2. A person who tries to solve an argument between people

4. pretend to be someone who you are not

5. expressing or conveying congratulations:

6. A person who scatters in various directions

7. When something goes down or dies such as a business

8. To validate is to prove that something is based on truth or fact, or is acceptable

9. To introduce a serum, vaccine, or antigenic substance into the body

10. the action or practice of meditating.

12. When a special material insulates your house