

Name: _____

Spring Storm

Across

1. A dramatic script writer. Upholds strong belief that men should dominate women.
5. Represents weakness and nervousness. The action itself represents Natsuo not needing approval and standing up for what she believes in.
7. The "route" that Natsuo must take in order to move up in life without the help of "the elevator" or her husband.
8. Represents nourishment; a source of life.
9. Also represents Natsuo's rebirth. New love "blossoming" and old relationships falling apart.
10. Represents ups and downs of life and Natsuo's attempts to move up in life

11. Represents terror and disruption and the inner struggle of Natsuo having to choose between success and her husband.

Down

2. The antagonist's career path. Represents how he wants to "write out" Natsuo's life for her to show that he is the dominant one.
3. Indicative of a change; Natsuo's rebirth after a fight with Yusuke
4. Introverted, shy, bashful. A protagonist willing to go against society's stereotypes of women.
6. Yusuke gives Natsuo the example of this woman with her 3rd husband. He compares her to a goose because of her talent and ability to provide riches.