

Standard Precaution

Across

3. Type of waste disposable items that are contaminated with blood or bodily fluids. These are placed in a red biohazard bag and disposed of properly

6. Can be expelled for up to three feet such as coughing, sneezing and even talking

7. Contact would be through skin to skin and indirect would consist of touching something such as a patient's linen or an article that the infected person has touched

8. Materials used to protect an employee from injury or illness resulting from contact made in the workplace

9. Absence of all microorganisms

10. Any disease contracted by a patient while under medical care

Down

1. Used for those infections that are transmitted through the air after being expelled

2. Another term for a germ

4. Removal of infectious material from an item

5. Absence of disease producing microorganisms

Word Bank

Asepsis

Airborne Precautions

Biohazard

Sterile

Microorganism

Nosocomial

Droplets

PPE

Direct

disinfection