

Start High School Cross Word Puzzle

Across

3. Contact that gives one party permission to market produce or use. The good or service owned by another party. The license is granted for a fee or royalty payment

9. Unethical and illegal copying or downloading of software, Files, etc. Examples include images, Movies, and Music and. Penalties include fines and Jail.

10. .

11. Protects inventions that are functional and Mechanical, must be useful inoffensive and operational. A process can also be patented if a machine changes one thing to another. Gives a person or company the right to be the only producer of a product for a defined use of time ideas cannot be patented.

Down

1. protects a person's or a Company's inventions, Artistic works, and other Intellectual property

2. something that comes from a persons mind, such as an idea, Invention or process. Belongs to the original person. You must cite the work stating you got the information from there/their Work,

4. use of copyrighted material without permission. Includes print, Internet and other forms of media. Under terms of use on internet

5. use of copyrighted material without permission. Includes print, Internet and other forms of media. Under terms of use of internet

6. Claiming another person's material as one's own-unethical and illegal. work must be cited. Guidelines:Chicago Manual Of style and MLA handbook {Modern Language Association}

7. protects taglines, Slogans names, symbols, and any unique Method to identify a product or company. Never expires.

8. © ownership of a work

Word Bank

Copyright

Intellectual Property Laws

Trade Mark

Intellectual Property

Made by Aries Aiken

Piracy

License Agreement

Plagiarism

Infringement

Patent

Infringement