

Statistics Crossword

Across

2. The question designed to push you into a direction
7. Finding surveys with little to no effort
8. Measuring items by a number quantity
10. A smaller group from entire population

11. Spinner, random number generator, pulling names out of a hat
12. Confused by multiple factors that affect the results

Down

1. An entire group of items under consideration
3. When the results are liked the survey is released

4. A collection of data from a sample to be analyzed for a bigger sample
5. Organize the population then choose every Nth item
6. To put an item in a group based on a trait
9. To be pushed into a decision based on emotions