

Statistics Terminology

Across

4. Data you have collected yourself

9. Data that are expressed as whole numbers

11. Data that uses a single data point that is then connected by a lines

12. Has a clear centre of distribution and even spread on either side

13. Graphs that are like bar graphs but data is connected when drawing

Down

1. The most common score is located to the left

2. Tables that are used to display data

3. The most common score is located to the right

5. Data that are non-numerical and use labels or categories

6. Data that is expressed as fractions or decimals

7. Data that other people have collected

8. Categories that are named for the outcomes

10. measurements or observation includes two peaks