

Statistics Terms

Across

2. two or more variables are affecting the outcome
 4. numeric data
 6. every nth member is included from a random starting point
 7. data that may contain decimals (measured)

9. whole number values only
 11. categorical data
 12. population is grouped and random samples from each group are included

Down

1. population is grouped then random groups are included

3. values from a population
 5. only those readily available are included
 8. values from a sample
 10. every member has the same chance of being selected