

Statistics Topic 1 - Graphs

Across

2. A collection of terms to indicate a method for finding a value.

7. The value where a straight line crosses an axis.

9. This refers to the number that is having the exponent applied to.

10. A function that is made up of many functions.

12. A number with no fraction, no decimal and no negative part.

13. A number with no fractional part.

14. A piecewise function with several horizontal sections.

15. The axis that runs from left to right.

Down

1. To have a reasonable guess at an outcome.

3. The number that we raise the base to.

4. How steep a line is. Is also known as the slope.

5. To have a reasonable guess at an outcome.

6. The axis that runs from top to bottom.

8. One of the axes that make up a graph.

11. The place where the x and y axes meet.