

Statistics

Across

3. The data was not collected by the person carrying out the investigation

7. This categorical data can be put in order/rank eg Grades for Leaving Cert O1,O2,O3...

10. Eye Colour is an example of categorical data that cannot be put in order

11. This is when the data is collected first-hand by the person carrying out the investigation

12. Answers that are given which are numbers

Down

1. Data that can be measured eg height, weight

2. Actual information obtained from surveys, questionnaires or experiments.

4. Answers that are given in words

5. Data where one variable is looked at

6. Whole number data

8. Data where two sets of variables are looked at for a relationship

9. The information that is collected is called...