

Statistics word puzzle

Across

- 2. Collecting data from a sample of that population .
- 4. A smaller group from the population is called a ____?
- 9. What is the process of collecting data from a sample to analyze or predict a bigger sample called
- 10. Confused by how much each factor contributed .
- 11. An official count or survey of a population recording various details of individuals .

12. an Entire group is called a ____?

Down

- 1. A Sample of members from a larger population are selected according to a random starting point with a fixed, period interval .
- 3. A type of sampling method that divides the population in separate groups then takes a sample from each group .
- 5. _____ Sampling is used in statistics when natural groups are present in a group population .

- 6. Assigning each individual or other unit of observation to a particular group or nominal category on the basis of some qualitative property .
- 7. This is able to be counted
- 8. a Tool or instrument needed to measure.

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|------------|------------|-----------|-------------|
| cofounding | Census | Survey | Categorical |
| Population | Systematic | Cluster | Sample |
| Stratified | Statistics | Continous | Discrete |