

Stems

Across

- 6. To build knowledge
- 7. A powerful vehicle that pulls farm machines and hauls heavy loads
- 8. To pull out by force
- 9. What is built; buildings that are created or produced
- 10. The parts of a city on which the rest of the city was built around: roads, communication, transportation, and schools

Down

- 1. To pull together to make smaller in size or bulk; to pull inward; opposite of "expand"
- 2. Pulled away from direct relation to anything; impersonal as in attitude or views
- 3. Something built on top of something else; the part of the building that was built on top of the foundation or base
- 4. To pull a person's attention in another direction
- 5. A person who helps someone build knowledge