

Stepping up to STAAR

Across

- 2. A clause that doesn't sound complete without another clause attached to it
- 4. Argumentation targetting the audience's emotion
- 7. Two likes in a poem that rhyme
- 9. Reading with a pencil
- 14. A clause that can stand on its own as a complete sentence if it wants to
- 16. Argumentation with facts, statistics and logic
- 17. Uses the pronouns I, we, my, mine, and us
- 18. A paragraph in a poem
- 19. The part of an essay that grabs the reader's attention

- 20. When third person pronouns are used and the author tells us about more than one character's thoughts
- 24. Another name for a dependent clause
- 26. FANBOY words are preceded by this
- 28. When third person pronouns are used but the author reveals only one character's thoughts
- 29. Pronoun for 2nd person

Down

- 1. "The dish ran away with the spoon"
- 3. Another name for FANBOYS
- 5. a group of words
- 6. A group of words that have a subject and a verb
- 8. Suggests what is coming later in the story
- 10. A description of the narrator's voice

- 11. The subject + what you want to say about it
- 12. An alphabetic way to analyze the patterns in a poem's rhyme
- 13. Rearranging, connecting, and adjusting the order of information in an essay
- 15. Does what a simile does but doesn't say like or as
- 21. Compares two seemingly different things using like or as
- 22. Argumentation built on gaining the audience's respect
- 23. Words or phrases that act like waiters and connect two parts of an essay
- 25. Checking for grammar and spelling mistakes in an essay
- 27. A description of the setting and how it's description makes you feel