

Stock Market Data

Across

- 1. a general term for an institution through which stocks are bought and sold.
- 4. the change between the previous days closing price and and the current days closing price
- 7. the lowest price at which one share was traded over the last year
- 11. the last price at which a share of a stock was traded during a regular days trading session
- 12. the first price at which a share of stock was traded during a regular days trading session

- 13. a chart made up of two graphs; top part showing the days high, low, open, and close; the bottom showing the volume
  - 15. stock market transactions
  - 16. stock data that is presented in graphical form
  - 17. the highest price at which one share was traded over the last year
- Down
- 2. a chart similar to the stock bar chart that may be easier to read and contains more information at a glance
  - 3. the trades made after the market closes

- 5. the lowest price at which one share of the stock was traded on a given day
- 6. the number of shares traded in a given time period
- 8. National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System
- 9. the price per share of the last trade of a particular stock
- 10. the highest price at which one share of the stock was traded on a given day
- 14. New York Stock Exchange

Word Bank

- |              |                     |                 |                   |
|--------------|---------------------|-----------------|-------------------|
| 52 week high | stock chart         | stock bar chart | candlestick chart |
| open         | volume              | last            | low               |
| NYSE         | after hours trading | NASDAQ          | high              |
| net change   | close               | stock market    | trades            |
| 52 week low  |                     |                 |                   |