

Name: _____

Date: _____

Story Basics

Across

- 1. The part of a story that ties up loose ends.
- 2. A character that does not change throughout the story.
- 6. A one-dimensional, often stereotypical character
- 11. The main character's opponent in a story.
- 13. The part of a story that includes events that intensify and develop the conflict.

15. The part of a story that shows a change.

16. The main parts of a story

Down

- 3. The main problem of the story
- 4. The part of a story that introduces characters, setting, and the conflict.
- 5. The turning point
- 7. The main character in a story
- 8. A character that changes throughout the story.

9. A difficulty characters face during the rising action.

10. A complex character with many traits

12. A type of characterization in which the author states a character's personality.

14. A type of characterization in which the audience infer a character's personality based on the character's words and actions.

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|----------------|------------------|---------|----------------|
| Resolution | Central conflict | Static | Exposition |
| Rising Action | Protagonist | Round | Climax |
| Falling Action | Direct | Dynamic | Crisis |
| Indirect | Antagonist | Flat | Plot Structure |