

Name: _____

Date: _____

Story Elements

- | | |
|--|----------------|
| 1. Setting, the "when and where" of a | A. conflict |
| 2. Character, people or animals that serve to move the plot | B. story |
| 3. Static Character, one who does not changes when faced with | C. story |
| 4. Dynamic Character, one that undergoes change as a result of | D. story |
| 5. Flat Character, a stereotype no depth or | E. work |
| 6. Round Character, complex flawed | F. forward |
| 7. Protagonist, the main character in a literary | G. real |
| 8. Antagonist, the principle character in opposition to the main | H. forces |
| 9. Plot, the events that happen in a | I. character |
| 10. Conflict, "No _____, no story." It is the problem or need that motivates the | J. characters |
| 11. Internal Conflict, tension that a character feels within | K. complexity |
| 12. External Conflict, tension that a character feels from outside | L. him/herself |
| 13. Theme, underlying insight moral or message of a | M. conflict |