

Story Elements

Across

2. The french word for the end of the story where everything is settled
 9. The main character in a story
 10. An example of external conflict
 13. The Problem in a story
 16. The message can be directly stated or implied. DIFFERENT from topic
 17. This type of character stays the same throughout a story

18. This type of character can change because of the events in the story

Down

1. The part of the story where things start to settle
 3. Short story we read about the sun
 4. The part of the story where the action is building
 5. The sequence of events in a story
 6. The high point of the story

7. There are four different types of this, one of which can be omniscient

8. An example of internal conflict
 11. This is also known as the beginning of the plot
 12. The time and place a story occurs
 14. Short story we read about a war
 15. The character who opposes the main character in a story