

Stroke

Across

5. Device inserted at the bedside when blood is in the ventricles
 6. Surgical opening into the skull
 9. Narrowing and constricting of blood vessels that can lead to tissue ischemia and death
 11. The most common and often deadly type of stroke resulting in bleeding in the brain
 13. Med for hydro
 15. The "exam" a lay person can perform to determine if someone may be having a CVA

16. Paralysis or inability to move one side of the body

17. La la

19. Weakness on one side of the body

20. A bulging of a blood vessel, often leading to an ICH

Down

1. After a CVA, a ST must evaluate this before a patient can eat or drink

2. Medication taken PO to prevent vasospasm

3. A blood clot that forms in an artery

4. Blah blah

7. Acronym for the congenital anomaly of arteries and veins that pose a risk for hemorrhage

8. 80% of all strokes are this type

10. Procedure in IR involving insertion of tiny springs into an aneurysm

12. Announced overhead in the hospital when a patient has stroke-like symptoms

14. Continuous uncontrolled movement of the eyes

18. Abbreviation for the medication given for an ischemic stroke