

Structural Abnormalities

Across

3. What did Emil Kraepelin call Schizophrenia in the olden times?
7. What type of Scan did Daniel Weinberger et al (1979) use to measure ventricles?
8. What lobe is responsible for memory processing?
9. What dopamine pathway in the brain explain negative symptoms of Schizophrenia?
10. What drug did Griffith et al (1968) use to increase dopamine in the brain? (Good Luck)

Down

1. What is the area of the brain filled with cerebrospinal fluid?
2. What is a loss of neurons in the cerebral cortex called?
4. What is the Abbreviation of Cerebrospinal Fluid
5. What lobe within the brain links to thinking and creativity?
6. Early research found that schizophrenia was linked to what disease?

Word Bank

Dextroamphetamine
CAT Scans
Mesocortical
Ventricles

Frontal
Praecox
Temporal

Parkinson
Cortical Atrophy
CSF