

Studies Of Religion - Judaism

Across

2. The concept of the uniqueness of Allah and the integrity of his creation
 4. the explicit, philosophical and/or religious reflection on moral beliefs and practices. Its purpose is to clarify what is right and wrong
 6. An Islamic scholar who is an interpreter or expounder of Islamic law.
 8. Cloning of a person to the five-day embryo stage only. The stem cells are removed from the embryo, for use in stem-cell treatments.
 12. The central religious text of Islam
 14. Muslims respect and care for creation
 17. The religious legal system governing the members of the Islamic legal system governing the members of the Islamic faith.

18. Older guardian who accompanies young women in public to ensure that they restrict their behaviour (particularly with the opposite sex)

19. The system of jurisprudence - the legal foundation of Islamic religious life

20. This is the independent or original interpretation of problems not precisely covered by the Qu'ran or Hadith

Down

1. A branch of ethics concerned with issues surrounding health care and the biological sciences.

3. Utilising undifferentiated primitive cells that have potential to grow into a range of different cells.

5. The science of law

7. The process of deductive analogy in which the teachings of the Hadith are compared and contrasted with those of the Qu'ran in order to respond to new ethical issues.

9. Reason which is guided by the Qu'ran and the Sunnah that assists a believer in making ethical decisions.

10. Consensus of the community of scholars over a solution to a legal and practical issue

11. Complex term often translated as marriage, but has connotations of embracing and sex

13. Muslims are accountable for their use and abuse of creation

15. Record of the traditions or sayings of the Prophet Muhammad.

16. Formal ruling or interpretation on a point of Islamic law given by a mufti. Fatwas are usually issued in response to questions from individuals or Islamic courts on topics such as ethics.