

Substance Use, Addictions and Related Behaviours

Across

- 6. What is an example of addiction?
- 8. What is an example of depressants?
- 9. A drug that distorts the senses and ones awareness of perception of events is called.
- 10. How can one be influenced to take drugs or other substances.
- 11. What is a substance other than food taken to change the way the body or mind work?

- 12. When it becomes compulsive and interferes with ordinary life responsibilities is a sign of _____.
- 13. An example of a drug that everyone intakes in the mornings is.
- 15. Who does addiction impact?

Down

- 1. It is not physically addictive, but experiences a psychological need for the drug. What is it?
- 2. The body has a physical need for the substance or it can not function.

- 3. Drugs that speed up or excite the central nervous system are called.
- 4. What is a common sign of withdrawal?
- 5. _____ is an example of psychological dependence.
- 7. Substance misuse is the use of substance in ways that are _____ or not recommended medically.
- 14. Drugs can be either used by ingesting, inhaling, _____, or injecting.

Word Bank

Illegal
Peers
Gambling
Addiction
Cocaine

Physical Dependence
Caffeine
Absorbing
Drugs
Society

Headaches
Stimulants
Psychological Dependence
Alcohol
Hallucinogens