

Suicide - Refer to Chapter 25 (page 480)

Across

6. the method which indicates how quickly a person would die.

8. is the result of interpersonal turmoil.

9. the intentional act of killing oneself by any means.

11. consists of cutting, burning, or scratching of skin.

12. "postvention" or referring to interventions with the circle of survivors of a person who has completed suicide.

13. follows a highly publicized suicide of a public figure, an idol, or a peer in the community.

14. individuals often report that these particular feelings fuel the sense of isolation and despair.

15. includes activities that provide support, information, and education

Down

1. the manifestation of inner pain, hopelessness, and helplessness suffered by an individual.

2. "I can't take it anymore." or "Life is definitely not worth living anymore."

3. the treatment of the actual suicidal crisis practiced in clinics, jails, hospitals, or telephone hotlines.

4. is a risk factor that about half of those who committed suicide have. Ex) Loss of mobility, disfigurement, & chronic pain

5. this gender commits suicide 4x more often.

7. "Things will never work out." or "I will not be a problem for much longer."

10. this problem is manifested by deliberate and direct attempts to cause bodily harm that does not result in death.