

Surgical 2

Across

1. Most common injury post fall.
6. A score greater than 9 on the OMS falls risk is a ??
8. Medication that increases falls risk
9. One of the most common reasons for a patient falling is related to ??
11. Strategy to reduce falls in hospital.
12. 70% of falls occur around or from the ??
13. A patient requires an OMS falls screen reassessment after a ??
14. A delerium screen is called a ??

19. If a patient is identified as a high falls risk a ?? is required
20. ?? is important in reducing falls incidents.
21. One in ?? of all patient incidents in our hospitals involve a fall.
22. ?? Can increase a patients risk of a fall

Down

2. Regular ?? can reduce falls incidents.
3. If a patient has had ?? or more medication changes in 12 months, it increases their falls risk.
4. The sense of self-movement and body position.

5. If a patien is taking more than ?? medications, it increases their falls risk.
7. Incidence of ?? injuries as a result of a fall are increasing.
10. Reduced ?? sensation is a risk factor for falls.
15. Lack of voluntary co-ordination of muscle movements.
16. Changes in ?? increases a patients risk of fall.
17. ?? are more likely to have an injurious fall.
18. A medical condition that increases patients falls risk is ?? disease