

Surgical Radiography

Across

2. What C-arm Orientation has increased exposure at x-ray tube end?

6. _____ consists of the practice and procedures used to minimize the levels of infectious agents present in the surgical environment. (2 wds)

11. Position where patient is lying on their Stomach?

12. licensed physician specially trained and qualified to perform surgical procedures

14. Right posterior oblique (abbrv)

16. What C-arm Orientation should be avoided; increased exposure to head and neck?

18. qualified surgeon or resident in an accredited surgical educational program; must be capable to assume duties of surgeon

21. provides intraoperative imaging in a variety of examinations with a variety of equipment

23. left posterior oblique (abbrv)

24. The typical surgical suite has two general regions known as? (3wds)

25. Access in the sterile corridor area is permitted only to those wearing? (4 wds)

Down

1. preferably an RN; monitors and coordinates all activities in OR, provides supplies to scrub nurse, and manages patient care.

3. What is the primary source of radiation exposure to the fluoroscopy staff? (2wds)

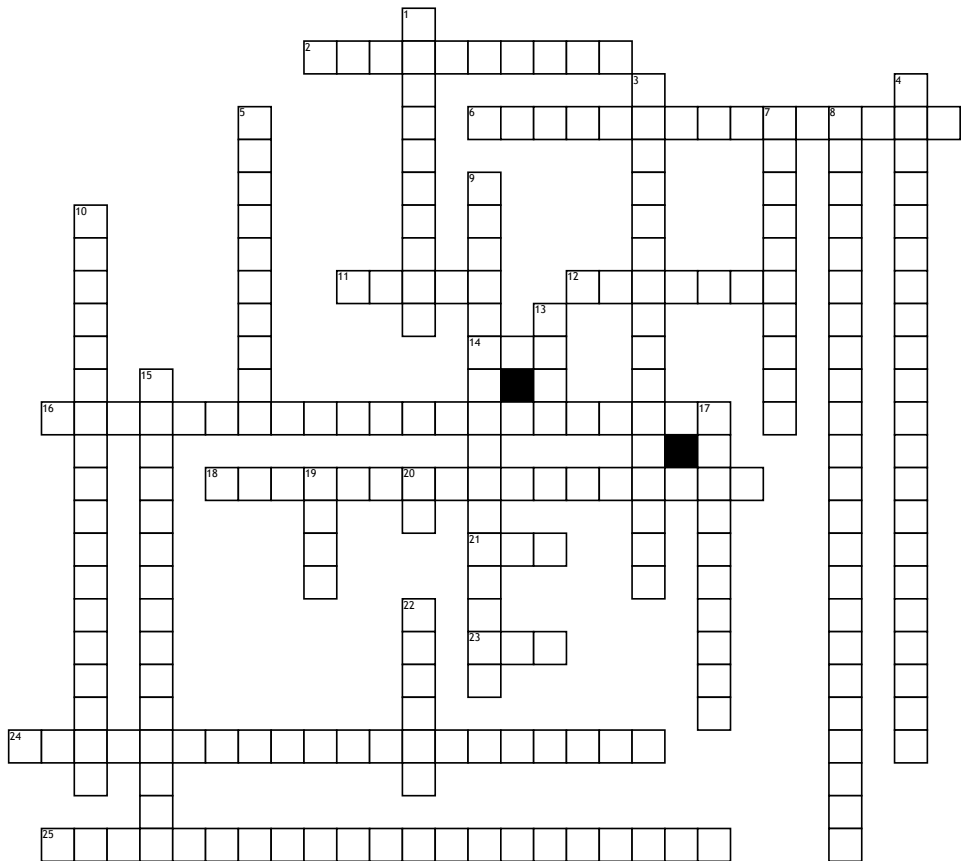

4. What are the Three Cardinal Principles of Radiation Protection; Especially important during C-arm procedure? (3wds)

5. What C-arm Orientation has the least exposure to operator?

7. responsible for maintaining the integrity, safety, and efficacy of the sterile field

8. allied health practitioner qualified by academic and clinical education

9. What C-arm Orientation has increased exposure to face and neck by a factor of four?

10. MD or certified registered nurse anesthetist who specializes in the art and science of administering anesthesia.

13. The _____ pedal allows the physician or other operator to have hands-free operation of the C-arm.

15. The area between the patient drape and the instrument table is maintained as a _____ and is the territory of the surgeon and the instrument nurse only.

17. What is the area called where the technologist is located?

19. What outfit does the sterile team wear?

20. anterior posterior (abbrv)

22. Position where patient is lying on their back?

