

Surrealism

Across

2. An oil on masonite painting by Mexican artist Frida Kahlo which was painted in 1944 shortly after she had spinal surgery.

5. Floating objects that normally don't float.

7. An item of illustrative matter, such as a film, slide, or model, designed to supplement written or spoken information so that it can be understood more easily.

9. The act or an instance of placing two or more things side by side often to compare or contrast or to create an interesting effect an unusual.

10. Visually descriptive or figurative language in literary work.

12. Taking an object from its usual environment and placing it in another unfamiliar one.

Down

1. The first painting Frida Kahlo painted as oil on metal in 1932.

3. the manner and ability with which an artist, writer, dancer, or athlete that have skills of a particular field.

4. Allowing light to pass through so that objects behind can be distinctly seen.

6. A cultural movement that started in 1917 and is best known for its visual artworks and writings.

8. A Mexican Surrealist painter who has achieved international popularity.

11. The quality, production, expression, or realm, according to aesthetic principles, of what is beautiful, appealing, or of more than ordinary significance.