

Name: _____

Surveys and Samples

Across

- 3. A samples that do not represent the population
- 7. A collection of facts, measurements, or observations about a set of individuals
- 9. A relationship between two events where one event is affected by the other
- 10. Asking, testing, or checking a smaller sub-group of the population

11. A sample in which you just ask individuals who are easy to ask or conveniently located

12. Characteristics about the individuals that the researchers are interested in

Down

1. Study when researchers simply collect data of something that has already happen or happens naturally

2. A sample in which participants get to choose whether or not to participate in the survey

4. Leaving an entire group (or groups) out of a sample

5. The entire group of individuals that we are interested in

6. The list of the population

8. A sample in which every member of the population has an equal chance of being selected