

TEST YOURSELF: SURGICAL NURSING

Across

4. RBC's in the urine
 7. Before initial patient contact, before aseptic procedures, after body fluid exposure risk, after patient contact (4 words)
 8. Oral candidiasis
 9. Little to no urine output
 11. A vital sign that is a physiologic response to pain
 13. A systemic reaction to a bacterial infection of the urogenital organs
 14. Hypotonic, hypertonic, and isotonic (2 words)

15. Patient presents with the following vital signs: BP 98/63 (110/78), HR 97 (85), hGb 89 (110), Oxygenation 91% (96%)
 17. Carpopedal spasm elicited by inflating the BP cuff above the systolic for 3 minutes
 18. Occurs in a chest tube when the water level in the water seal chamber rises and falls with respirations

19. An example of a colloid
 20. White patch on buccal mucosa due to superficial fungal infection
Down
 1. Another word for irregular heart beat

2. A potential adverse effect of untreated/under-treated post surgical pain
 3. Occurs when disorganized impulses cause the atria to quiver, preventing regular contraction
 5. A main fluid compartment in the body
 6. Bubbling in this chamber indicates an air leak (2 words)
 10. A common facial expression seen in patients who are in pain
 12. Fraction of inspired oxygen
 16. Term used to describe caring relationships conveying a concern for the inner life world and subjective meaning for another person