

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

TKAM Part 1

- | | |
|---|-------------------------|
| 1. v. reach an authoritative judgment or settlement | A. speculation |
| 2. adj. stupid; stubborn | B. evasion |
| 3. assuaged v. to lessen the intensity of; to ease, pacify, relieve | C. imprudent |
| 4. adj. conducive to success; favorable | D. parched |
| 5. n. kindness | E. arbitrated |
| 6. v. to assume an air of superiority | F. asinine stubborn |
| 7. n. exemption from a rule | G. onslaught |
| 8. n. improvement of a person | H. dispensation |
| 9. n. an implication or issue that involves the law | I. assuage |
| 10. adj. not even or regular in pattern or movement; unpredictable | J. benevolence |
| 11. n. avoidance | K. placidly |
| 12. adj. not showing care | L. edification person |
| 13. adj. produced, growing, or living naturally in a particular area | M. erratic |
| 14. n. an especially fierce attack | N. condescended |
| 15. adj. dried out; washed out | O. sojourn |
| 16. adv. done in a tranquil or peaceful manner | P. entailment law |
| 17. n. a temporary stay | Q. tacit |
| 18. n. forming a theory without evidence | R. taciturn |
| 19. adj. implied or indicated but not actually expressed (understood); unspoken | S. auspicious favorable |
| 20. adj. habitually quiet; silent in expression | T. indigenous |