

Name: _____

Date: _____

Takotsubo Cardiomyopathy (TCM)

Across

- 2. Ejection fractions return to _____ after recovery
- 3. Catecholamine (stress hormones) overload causes the left ventricle to become overwhelmed and results in severe _____ of the heart muscle
- 4. Patients are at _____ risk for TCM if one of their family members has had it.
- 5. Possible Major Complication requiring possible balloo pump
- 9. anxiety, depression, SOB, throat tightness, nausea, ALOC, pain in the arm or back can be _____ of TCM

- 13. Transient epicardial coronary artery stunning can our without lasting _____.
- 15. _____ can be mildly elevated
- 17. May Cause _____ on an EKG
- 18. TCM is usually associated with an identifiable _____
- 19. TCM has a _____ prognosis
- 20. _____ medications maybe used for long term stress control
- 21. The majority of TCM patients are _____ women

Down

- 1. Japanese octopus trapping pot

- 6. Torsades de pointes, LV Thrombus, and LV Rupture are all possible _____ of TCM
- 7. _____ medications should be used with caution
- 8. _____ may be used to reduce the work load of the heart
- 10. Symptoms of TCM mimic a _____
- 11. _____ induced Cardiomyopathy
- 12. TCM is also know as _____ syndrome
- 14. The exact casue of TCM is _____
- 16. chest pain not associated with _____