

Tea Time in London

Across

- 1. English people usually eat scones with cream and _____.
- 3. The highest skyscraper in London is called "the _____".
- 6. It is extremely rude to speak with your _____ full.
- 8. It's not polite. = It is _____.
- 9. It is a show which involves singing, dancing and acting: it is a _____.
- 11. It is a very tall clock tower.

15. What's the name of the Queen's residence in London?

- 17. It is a place in London which is famous for its shopping: it is _____.
 - 18. You pour the hot water in the _____.
- Down
- 2. Afternoon tea is usually at 5 _____ in the afternoon.
 - 4. You mustn't eat with your mouth _____.
 - 5. It is more proper to _____ the scones in two.

7. You mustn't use a _____ to eat the scones.

- 10. Miss, _____ I have some jam, please? (very polite question)
- 12. You stir the tea and sugar with a s _____.
- 13. You _____ eat scones with your hands.
- 14. Then, you pour the tea in the _____.
- 16. First, you must put the _____ on your lap.