

Name: _____

Date: _____

Teamwork Skills Crossword Puzzle

Across

5. Learning from your errors and command more respect from your team is called?

8. One name for an assigned job called that the team has to work on

9. After you work on project, you should take to do what?

10. Completing a task on time

11. What is the term for when your coworker or supervisor gives you suggestions on ways to improve?

13. What is the act of making an effort to focus intently on one person as they share their ideas, thoughts or feelings?

14. What is the act of building relationships with others in which both parties feel supported and understood?

Down

1. Being transparent and upfront with your coworkers

2. What is your place within the team that helps work to achieve your duties to the best of your ability?

3. What is a labeled as SMART?

4. What is Taking the time to listen and understand how others think and work can help you to communicate with them?

6. This terms means to work with other teammates to share ideas, improve each other's work and help one another to form a good team

7. What includes both verbal and nonverbal skills?

12. A group people you rely on for support