

Name: _____

Technical Vocabulary for Drama and Theater.

Across

- 2. a person or an animal that takes part in the story or play
- 5. notes in the script usually written in italics and enclosed in parentheses or brackets
- 7. a story or play that results in a catastrophe for the main character (s)
- 9. the sequence of events in a story or play; exposition, conflict, rising action, climax, falling action, resolution.
- 10. are things, like, books, telephones and other items

Down

- 1. a person who writes plays
- 3. the imaginary place and time that stage area represents; includes details of the place and time, such as the year, the time of day, the weather, region, feeling, and atmosphere.
- 4. a light humorous or satirical play that ends happily.
- 6. Seat are the scenery, backdrops, and furniture that create the setting.
- 8. is what the characters say, and it is used to reveal their personalities - Character Traits.