

Tele-Eye

Across

- 2. The pressure reading difference between the right and left eye should be within 1-3 mmHg of each other. If there is a difference of > 3mmHg between the eyes, _____ the pressure readings.
- 4. The imager must obtain _____ consult from patient prior to imaging them.
- 8. Anyone with diabetes is at risk for _____?
- 9. A minimum of _____ pictures are needed for TRI?

- 10. A person, identifies eligible patients, processes consult requests, educates patients, functions as a photographer to acquire images of these patients and transmits images.
- 11. This condition is usually linked to high pressure inside the eye, which is a different type of pressure than blood pressure.
- 12. A central, _____, and nasal view needs to be obtained in each eye.

Down

- 1. There are two different types of this disease, the dry and wet form.
- 3. Imagers identify and recruit eligible patients for TRI and IOP using the Diabetic Registry, Report Central Reports, and " Due Now" _____ reminder tracking.
- 5. The central view of the exposed eye ensure the macula and _____ nerve may be seen.
- 6. An attending who evaluates Dermatologic or Optometric images and makes recommendations regarding related care.
- 7. TCTs best practice is to act on the read study the same day, but have up to _____ days to report reading to patient.