

Temperaments and personalities

Across

4. Name of the organ affected in individuals that are Phlegmatic
6. one of the four basic humors
7. One factors attributed to an individual's humors
9. characteristic of a Melancholic personality
10. The humors were used to explain the differences in

Down

1. the air element falls under
2. These are bodily fluids that helps medicine determine any health conditions
3. true/false the European physicians of the early modern age believed that when the four humors were out of balance
5. Name one of the Greek philosophers that explained the humors
8. Personality type is described primarily as being highly talkative, enthusiastic, active, and social

Word Bank

seasons Sanguine emotions. Humors analytic Sanguine true yellow bile Brain Hippocrates