

Temperate Forest Biome

Across

2. Temperate forests have _____ distinct seasons
8. Which hemisphere are temperate forests found in?
9. Some of the snakes and insects which inhabit temperate forests are _____
13. R_____ play a very important role in keeping the food chain in balance
14. What is the tallest plant zone in temperate forests?
15. Temperate forests have been harvested for their _____ for hundreds of years

16. M_____ prevent soil erosion and are a source of insulation during the colder months
17. L_____ are decomposers, they help recycle plant leaves..
18. How many continents are temperate forests in?
19. Red wolves were declared _____ in the wild in 1980
20. Temperate forests have a _____ growing season

Down

1. Clearing for A_____ L_____ is one of the main threats to temperate forests
3. Lichens are not _____

4. What are temperate forests also known as?
5. Red wolves are _____
6. A _____-_____ effect of logging is that it changed the plant composition of the forest
7. Red wolves are _____ by human activity and interbreeding with coyotes
10. Lichens are the result of the _____ relationship between algae/Cyanobacteria and fungi
11. Humans are impacted by temperate forests because of _____ animals which live in them
12. A _____-_____ effect of logging is the use of heavy machinery damaging the forest soil